Website: <http://wally.rit.edu/javawally>

In partnership with the RIT Libraries at The Wallace Center, Java Wally's Café has been immensely popular since it opened for business in 2001. Located on the first floor, just off the main lobby in Wallace Library (WAL), Java Wally's has affectionately been referred to as "the coolest place on campus."

The custom-built serving bar is the centerpiece in this eclectic realm of fine pastries, delicious beverages, and walls bedecked in original student artwork. The menu includes everything from fresh gourmet coffees and teas to fruit smoothies, Italian sodas, hot chocolate, and a tempting array of light snacks.

The relaxed, inviting atmosphere allows for small group meetings, intimate get-togethers, and quiet introspection. Popular magazines and board games are freely available, and musical performances and poetry readings are often performed here. Patrons can check out wireless laptop computers in the library, then take them into the café to do school work or surf the Internet.

The Outdoor Café*
